APPRECIATION

Bishop of Bathurst, A.R.E. Thomas joined Tattersall's Club in November, 1963. He writes:—

"I wish to explain my change of situation and at the same time pay a tribute to the staff of the Club. When I joined the Club it was at the suggestion of several business associates. At that time I believe I was the first Catholic Priest to join. Then I became the Bishop of Bathurst and at the same time was left to administer the Catholic Missions Office in Sydney. In the last ten years I have found all those associated with the residential side of the Club most co-operative, understanding and personal. It was evident in every way but especially in respect to change of reservations. Both I, and my Secretary in Sydney acting for me, received every consideration.

A few days ago I was relieved of the administration of the National Missions Office, hence I will not be making my weekly trek to Sydney. Naturally I will retain my membership but I will use the residential less and because of this I wished to set on record my appreciation for so many acts of thoughtful care over the past ten years.

With every kind wish."

ROTARIAN HONOUR

Bondi Junction Rotary Club and visiting Rotarians paid tribute to Past District Governor Ken Scheller and his wife Natalie, on an honour especially appreciated by his Tattersall's colleagues.

The occasion took the form of a dinner to celebrate Ken's election to the Board of Rotary International.

Club President Norm Baker, who was sponsored to Rotary in 1961 by Ken, presented the couple with a specially engraved silver tray and wished them God speed on their trip to Rotary International headquarters in the United States.

In his reply Ken gave two interesting thoughts: First — "Take Rotary seriously, but never yourself"; second — "There is nothing worth the wear of winning save laughter and the love of friends."

PDG Ken Scheller was president of Bondi Junction Rotary Club in 1957-58, and in 1964 he became District Governor of District 275 which now has 54 clubs and 2729 members under its jurisdiction.

Ken is the eighth Australian to be elected to the Board of Rotary International since 1932.

There are at present 32,219 Rotarians in Australia and Papua New Guinea in 733 clubs spread over 17 Districts.

Tattersall's extend congratulations to Ken and his wife Natalie on the high Rotary distinction.

SILENCE IS GOLDEN

Committeeman Jack O'Neill once had a station property and introduced mulesing to his flock. He discussed "fors" and "againsts" with that Western sheep authority Wally Wason and it was obvious that his city colleagues in the party had no knowledge of the topic.

THEN THE RAINS CAME

If ever "Newhaven" John Kelly has a busy time it sure is at Easter, what with races, sales and social activities.

On the concluding day of the Randwick Easter carnival he grabbed a hasty repast in the Members' Stand snack bar, and bolted it down in evens.

It was just after the third race, and John could have much more profitably taken his time because that was the rainy Saturday when Jupiter Pluvius "did his lolly" and the A.J.C.'s scheduled subsequent races were adjourned to Anzac Day.

THE 25th

Anzac Day was celebrated in the traditional Tattersall's manner.

Old days and battles were recalled.

One contingent gathered round Carl Thorley following the wreath laying ceremony at the Cenotaph. Amongst them were members of the Australian Army Hygiene Association.

And a nice tribute was paid by all to the efficiency and kindly attention of the Club staff.

PARDONABLE PRIDE

Raymond Tobias, who joined Tattersall's at the age of twenty-four, well remembers the Depression of the 30's.

Now 64 and having been a member for the intervening 40 years he has just received the accolade of Senior Member.

It could be that Raymond would be one of the very few of his age to become a Club S.M.

In the hard times of the "hungry thirties" when every Club was seeking to keep its head above board, Raymond remembers that the annual subscription fee for Tattersall's was reduced to three guineas and the joining fee from nine guineas to three.

Raymond graduated from Sydney University and had two years at Oxford and is now a partner in Smithers, Warren and Tobias, besides being a director of several firms. He will never be short on shirts.

Ray is a member of Elanora Country Club and Double Bay Bowling Club.

And his proudest thoughts of today are that his sons Murray and Robert are equally enthusiastic Tattersall's members.

Wherever you meet up with them, that trinity of good fellows, Neville O'Neill, Peter Holohan and Sid Kay have a smile, a story, and a "what'll you have?"

TWO BILLS

Guest of honour at a Gallipoli Memorial Club lunch was former State Minister Billy Sheahan.

It wasn't his first visit.

He was there the day Billy Hughes, the Little Digger himself, opened the club in 1946. The Club then bought the building in Loftus Street for £16,000. Recently it knocked back an offer from a developer for one million dollars.

Every day, Monday to Friday, year in, year out, wet or fine, four good friends join for a game of snooker — "anyhow" — as the man in the TV ad. says — that's what they claim.

Perhaps there are many foursomes do the same —

Our challengers are Bob Lindsay, Don Clark, Mac Parker and Mike Willmott.

Any claims?

OLYMPICS

Frank McGlynn was a bouncing baby in Parkes and went to Joeys alongside Bunny Durkin.

He returned to his father's store at Parkes where he prospered until he sold to the Meagher complex, another family represented in Tattersall's.

In the intervening years Frank has enjoyed a very pleasant pastime of following the Olympics.

As an opener he did not have far to go — it was at Melbourne in 1956.

The Rome Olympics were next in 1960, thence to Tokyo in 1964, he missed Mexico in 1968, but turned up at Munich in 1972. He thinks the next will be Montreal in 1976.

And with Australia always getting amongst the golds, what better way is there for Frank to earn a hoarse throat.

There have also been several trips to Europe and Great Britain whilst at home he finds time as a member of the A.J.C. to challenge the bookmakers at Sydney and Melbourne.

Ex-Manly Golf Club, Frank can also occasionally be located at St. George and Wests League, and chasing kitty at Lindfield Bowling Club.

WINING, DINING & DANCING

It was Frank Fisher's birthday on 17th April last and quite a jovial gang gathered to wish him "many happies" and farewell on his "quickie" business trip to Atlanta, Georgia, — what! no time for golf.

Frank's wife, Gwen, made a glamorous hostess whilst around the festive board were Wal and Audrey Hogg, Pat and Bunty Tingwell, Fred and Joan Smith, Frank's daughter Kerry and Robert Enemark.

The whole of the Dr. Alan Burgess clan gathered to celebrate daughter Robyn obtaining her Bachelor of Arts degree on her way to L.L.B. Included in the erudite party was her brother David B.D.S. Sydney University, and also her grandparents.

The gathering was not purely academic as the continued wit and laughter proved.

EARLY BIRD

A 6.30 a.m. stroll around the Rocks might seem an unusual time but you do meet interesting people.

You will see eminent artist Cedric Emanuel sketching the beauty of old Sydney at its best and gaining background for his intriguing stories of famous historical places.

JUICE

It was a great Sunday afternoon and all the good sports from here, there, and everywhere, with Tattersall's Club very prominent, gathered at Leo Joseph's place to help swell the deserving funds of the Blind Dogs' Appeal.

The big raffle carried what Bill Aitkenhead thought a commensurate first prize, but he considered the second, third, and consolation places could do with supplementation.

Now, as it is well known, Bill is a great racing enthusiast, and his remarkable rise from a one cab taxi service at Mascot aerodrome to the now famous Kingsford service of today has been previously told in these columns.

On this particular Sunday afternoon everyone was in the throes of the big petrol strike, and the precious liquid was more valuable than gold.

But Bill had some accumulated stocks and decided to donate some to the appeal.

He did this by giving a tank full to the winners of the 2nd, 3rd and consolation prizes.

Good man that Bill is, he had little thought of the outcome.

His first tank full went to Don Storey, and what does Don drive? — nothing but a Rolls, and into it went 18 gallons.

But his second prize could not be so bad.

"Not much it couldn't" said genial Bill.

No one else but Tom Smith won the second place, and what does he drive?

Of course, you guessed it.

A Rolls Royce which took 20 gallons.

And to complete the story of a generous donor, the consolation prize went to Dick Smith, Tom's brother, who arrived at the "do" in a Volkswagen.

"This will help even out things" thought Bill, but the astute Dick had other ideas.

"When I come to collect I'll bring my Jaguar" he said.

However, Dick listened to sweet reason and duly collected an eight gallon touch for his Volks.

Big hearted and charitable is Bill Aitkenhead, but we feel that in any future petrol disputes Bill will apply a few limitations to his tank donations.

Sir Frank Packer, K.B.E.

Sir Frank Packer, publishing and television magnate, died at the age of 67.

Sir Frank was chairman and managing director of Australian Consolidated Press, chairman of Television Corporation (TCN/9, Sydney) and Chairman of General Television Corporation (GTV/9, Melbourne).

Sir Frank was a member of the Australian Jockey Club committee and a leading identity in Sydney racing circles.

He owned a string of racehorses and was a part-owner of the famous Aluinn Stud, at Scone, where one of his finest horses, Columnist, the 1947 Caulfield Cup winner, was bred.

Sir Frank also organised two unsuccessful Australian challenges for the America's Cup, the symbol of world yachting supremacy.

His yachts Gretel and Gretel II were beaten by American yachts in 1962 and 1970.

Sir Frank was knighted in 1959 to cap a series of distinctions awarded him for his service to publishing and the community.

His other distinctions were: Knight Commander of the British Empire, 1961, Order of St. John, 1967, and Fellow of the Royal Society of the Arts.

Tattersall's colleague former Liberal Prime Minister, Bill McMahon, said of Sir Frank:— "For those he liked his kindness was unlimited and he would do all he could to give assistance and advice. He was a remarkable man."

Sir Robert Menzies, a long time friend spoke feelingly and succinctly, "Sir Frank was a real man of positive views never neutral, sometimes difficult, always masculine, he never pretended".

Great journalist and close friend David McNichol said:— "One of Frank Packer's best qualities was his acceptance of the theory that if you dish it out, you've got to expect to take it. He played the game hard, and he did not resent others playing it hard.

"I remember back in the days when the late Mr. Justice Dovey was a QC at the Bar, a Telegraph reporter phoned him very late at night to check a story. The phone call, well after midnight, made Mr. Dovey very angry.

"Next night, the QC struck back. He waited until 2 a.m., then phoned Frank Packer and got him out of bed.

"It's Dovey here, Packer", he said, 'your reporters think nothing of disturbing me in the middle of the night, so I thought you might like to see what it's like'.

"Fair enough," replied Packer, 'And now you're on the line Bill, let's have a chat.' And he kept Mr. Dovey talking for 10 minutes."

Sir Frank leaves a widow, Lady Packer, and two sons, Mr. Clyde Packer, MLC, and Mr. Kerry Packer, senior executive at ACP.

Fred Allsop

Fred Allsop, 52, one of the most respected and popular trainers to hold a licence in post-war years, died after a long period of ill health.

He trained many top-class horses including the Epsom Handicap winners Connaught and High Law and the AJC Metropolitan winner, Beupa.

A popular figure on the third floor, he will be sadly missed.

Out condolences to his sorrowing family.

H.W.J. (Jordie) Moss

The Moss Vale District lost an outstanding citizen when Hedley Walter Jordon ("Jordie") Moss, B.E.M. died aged 75.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Moss, were pioneers of the Berrima district and "Jordie" carried on the family tradition with a lifetime of service to primary industry.

Jordie was born at Robertson but his family moved to Moss Vale when quite young.

He attended Moss Vale primary school and won a scholarship to Cleveland Street High School, which was then one of the few specially graded schools in the State.

After leaving school he entered the family butchery business and built a reputation as a cricketer and football player.

Over the years he became increasingly involved in the management of properties which his parents had acquired around Moss Vale.

He was one of the first graziers to use pasture improvement.

Jordie was an active member of the Moss Vale Dairy Farmers' Union for more than 30 years and was its President for some years.

He was a government appointee to the Rural Re-construction Board for four years.

His service to his local community included nine years as an Alderman of Moss Vale Municipal Council and three years as a Wingecarribee Shire Councillor.

Jordie played a leading part in the establishment of Berrima District Meats, one of the State's most efficient and successful abattoirs, and was still its Chairman and Managing Director at the time of his death.

In later life he became interested in the ownership of trotters and thoroughbreds.

He was a member of the A.J.C. and regularly attended metropolitan race meetings.

A life-time of service and achievement was recognised last year when he was awarded the British Empire Medal in the Queen's New Year Honours List.

Jordie's wife, Mildred, died some two years ago after nearly 40 years of happy married life.

He is survived by his brother, Dick, and two sisters, Mrs. Olga Minchin and Mrs. Irma Wales.

John Ryder

John Willson Ryder, born 5th January, 1936 at Waverley, died in a plane crash at Bali, Indonesia, on 23rd April, 1974, E.S.T.

John went to Mosman Preparatory School, where he was Junior Athletic Champion, won the Junior Boxing Championship, then on to Shore where he represented in G.P.S. athletics every year he was at school. He went to Leaving School standard.

John was a member of Royal Prince Alfred Yacht Club, and dearly loved to sail.

He excelled in classical music, devoted a lot of time to music of all kinds. He was an avid snow-skier and a member of the Sydney Ski Club.

Until recently a member of Pymble Golf Club.

John's wife, Simone, his children, John, Sarah Jane and Simon and his parents, Jack and Mavis Ryder, are still numbed by this tragic accident.

John was returning from Canton,

HANDBALL PRESENTATION

by Arthur McCamley

Thursday, May 2nd, was a grand night for the handball enthusiasts. This was the night selected by the Handball Committee for our trophy presentation night.

Proceedings commenced with the final of the Tattersall's Plate. The event was inaugurated in 1971. This year six teams competed — Bondi, Clovelly, Coogee, North Sydney, Tamarama and Tattersall's Club. The matches had been keenly contested throughout the series on a knockout basis.

The finalists emerged as: Ron Rogers (North Sydney) v Kevin Smith (Bondi).

Approximately fifty members and visitors assembled on the Third Floor to watch the contest.

They were treated to a scintillating display of fast, aggressive, high class handball.

The winner was Ron Rogers with Kevin Smith a very gallant runner-up.

This is the third final for Tattersall's Plate and Ron Rogers has been the winner on each occasion. A wonderful achievement. However, it is not surprising. Ron is a champion surfer and an Australian swimming representative. Amongst those present to cheer his success were his father and our handball club secretary, Norman Rogers, and his brothers, Greg and Neil. It was indeed a proud night for the Rogers family.

Another father and son group was our Club Champion Michael O'Dea, and his father, Cecil. Besides being Club champion Michael is also the Mayor of North Sydney and it is through his efforts that handball is making such progress on the "North side".

After the excitement had subsided the company assembled in the Sportsman's Room for the presentation of the prizes. The Sportsman's Room is a very pleasant setting for any type of function and the Committee of Tattersall's Club is to be congratulated on this fine addition to our amenities. The hospitality and food were excellent. First class liquid refreshments and a most delicious Smorgasbord as only Danny, the Club's chef, can arrange.

When all were relaxed with cigars and liqueurs served we settled down to the presentation of our prizes.

Tattersall's Plate: Winner — Ron Rogers (North Sydney). Runner-up Kevin Smith (Bondi).

Club Championship: Winner — Michael O'Dea. Runner-up Norman Rogers. Trophies donated by Les Tidmarsh.

'A' Grade: Winner — Ken Glass. Runner-up — Bob Callaghan. Trophies donated by Bruce Partridge.

'B' Grade: Winner — John McGuire. Runner-up — Charles Warne. Trophies donated by Arthur McCamley.

'Winooka': Winner — Bill Sellen. Runner-up — Arthur O'Connor. Trophies donated by Stephen Blau.

'Most Improved Player' was Charles Griffiths. Trophy donated by Bill Hannan.

'Good Idea Trophy': Winner — John McGuire. Runner-up Bruce Upcroft. Trophies donated by Arthur Browning.

Tattersall's Plate trophies were presented by Jim Comans.

Club Title trophies were presented by Arthur McCamley.

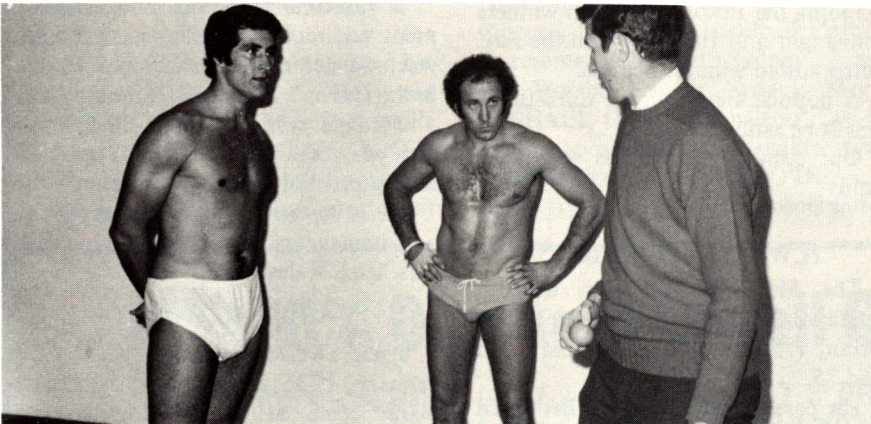

'A' Grade trophies were presented by Father Wal Fingleton.

'B' Grade trophies were presented by Arthur McCamley.

Winooka trophies were presented by Max Sernack.

Most improved Player trophy was presented by Ken Glass.

Good Idea Trophies were presented by Bill Hannan and Arthur Browning.

Ron Rogers (North Sydney) Kevin Smith (Bondi) Umpire Michael O'Dea. Last minute instructions. "Back to your corners and come out fighting."

IGHT — A GREAT SUCCESS

The speeches and replies were very good. Committeeman Jim Comans was most entertaining. Jim is a natural at these functions and it is a delight to listen to him.

Jim did the honours by presenting the trophies to the finalist for the Tattersall's Plate. We were pleased to have with us Father Wal Fingleton who presented the 'A' Grade trophies. Also we had that grand supporter of handball, Arthur Browning, who presented the 'Good Idea' trophies. Unfortunately Committeeman Les Tidmarsh, who donated the Club Championship trophies, was unable to be present.

Everyone missed our erstwhile friend and loyal supporter Sam Block who had to send his apologies. His wife, Nell, had a most unfortunate accident in the city when she slipped and fell over. A doctor placed five stitches in her hand. We all send our love and best wishes, Nell, for a full and speedy recovery.

A special mention goes to Max Sernack who acted as our official photographer. The resultant snapshots were very good and Max deserves our congratulations for a job well done.

And so ended another of those delightful evenings. All feeling mellow and at peace with the world as we wended our way homewards. Home to our beloved ones, and so to bed in great content. Good night!

John McGuire tensely awaits his trophy from Arthur McCamley and his "few well chosen words"

Pleased as Punch. Arthur Browning, donor of the "Good Idea" Trophy.

"Your attention, Genlemen, please!"

PERSONALITY OF THE MONTH

CLAUDE BRELAZ

Recently one of the best celebrated birthdays in Tattersall's was the 80 years' achievement of Claude Brelaz.

He was born on the Ballarat goldfields where his French parents conducted a wine business something akin to the Sydney bistros of today.

Claude said that gold was first found at Ballarat in 1850.

He tells vividly of the early days and says that the relatively new Sovereign Hill Historical Park at Ballarat has attracted visitors from all over the world.

This park was opened in 1970 with five buildings. It recreates the Main Street as it was between 1851 and 1860 where Claude was born and where his father had his wine business.

In this set up there are now more than twenty buildings in the 70 acre park including a newspaper office, stables, Post Office, Chinese Joss house, a foundry, pottery, and a blacksmith's shop.

Claude says that visitors to Ballarat can now pan for gold in a stream and go down a mine, walking 70 ft. below the surface.

As was to be expected of Claude's French parentage and occupation, they were good judges of the fruit of the vine, and Claude was destined to become a gourmet of food, wine and cigars.

All the family were taught to cook and Claude today can turn out a meal ranking with the standard of first class chefs.

As a child Claude did his own thing in prospecting, and after heavy rains, he, and all the other Ballarat kids, scrounged the mullock heaps to occasionally turn over some precious golden specks.

Claude commenced his Australian Rules Football interest, preserved even until now, with games with Ballarat, and, in later life, he became an administrator with the North Sydney A.R.F.C.

Came the age of 15 and Claude commenced his life's career in the wine and spirit industry.

In those days all spirits were imported and Claude's close and intimate knowledge of the cellar, which he then first gained, was to be developed over succeeding years until he was acknowledged without peer amongst the "back room boys" of the wine trade.

In 1912 Claude became works manager for a leading Victorian distillery.

Then another twelve years later he came back to the wine trade joining a prominent N.S.W. firm as a cellar manager, deep down under the Queen Victoria Market building in George Street, Sydney.

Eventually Claude came to the surface when he was appointed city and interstate representative and familiarly known from Cape York to all points south.

In 1944 he became associated with another wine trade and foundry business, as N.S.W. manager, still carrying out negotiations with his interstate friends until his retirement in 1961.

Claude says he is not a racing man and has had only two bets in his life.

The first was during the 30's when he made his one and only visit to Randwick racecourse.

He was given a "good thing" — Queen Alywne — it was at 25 to 1 — and it won — "mugs for luck" said Claude.

His second venture was a week's wages of $10 which he invested with an S.P. man in a Mechanics' Institute.

It was on Molly's Robe in the Newmarket.

It also won at 25 to 1, but sad to say, the bookie "took the knock".

Married for the past 54 years Claude has a daughter, Vanda, married to John S. Wright, another Tattersall's member.

Also another Club member to be is son-in-law John Tregaskis, married to John's younger daughter, Mary.

And this puckish octogenarian, Claude, with his inveterate cigar, his billiards cue, his daily visit to the Club's second floor tables, and his fund of stories, make him another coveted colleague in Tattersall's Club.

Sol Green, Fuzz Porter and pipe.

Thursday, 9th May saw the annual match against City Tattersall's.

Kensington B.C. President Charlie Bieman extended a warm welcome to the friendly warriors of Tattersall's and City Tattersall's.

Each club managed a roll up of 33 players, 11 games of triples. With their galaxy of top players our hosts proceeded to teach us something about the game of bowls and we were forced to play on and enjoy being done like the proverbial dinner to the tune of 254 to 176. We hate to record that when the battle was over we were down on 9 rinks, level on 1 and winners on a sole rink.

However, City Tattersall's President Laurie Taylor reminded us that it is not the "beating" but the "meeting" which is the object of these matches between the two clubs.

Fuzz Porter extended congratulations to City Tattersall's when he again passed the Laurie Taylor trophy over to Ron Young remarking that they had held it for so long that he was surprised it was not covered with cobwebs. The Tattersalls' trophies were won by Fuzz Porter, Ken Brown and Len Burke. It was pleasing to have Bob Lindsay, Ken Fidden and Emmet McDermott with us again for this fixture as well as the Mosman trio (Morrissey, Wallis and Quinton).

Two games were washed out in April and attendances since then have still been very poor, April (Rose Bay) 14, May (City) 16, and May (Rose Bay) 15 — a further appeal to all members to remedy this.

The Club is rapidly approaching the Annual Meeting which will be held either late in June or early in July. As a good attendance is expected members are asked to keep the date free once it is announced.

Early in April the club suffered a severe loss when we learned of the sudden death of an old member in the person of Wal Schumacher. Wal always enjoyed his bowls especially when we played at Rose Bay. Our deepest sympathy is extended to his wife and family.

In May we were further saddened to hear of the death of Muriel, wife of Homer Jones. All members extend their sympathy to Homer.

Results — 18 April Rose Bay: K. Manion, A. Miller, J. Topler. 2 May City: K. Williams, C. McDermott, H. Law. 16 May Rose Bay: D. McFarlane, H. Porter, P. McGrath.

GOLF NOTES

by

Phil Tresidder

Tricky Avondale greens proved no hurdle for Vic Zappia and his visitor Bob Parnell in the last Tattersall's golf day outing.

The pair were a winning combination with a fine score of 45 points — two ahead of runners-up Ernie Bacon and Tom Dickman.

Vic Zappia, who luxuriates in a handicap of 21, gave all credit to the fourball victory to his visitor Bob Parnell who is a 14-marker out at Woolaware.

"His putting was fantastic. Even on those greens," he said.

Vic only came into the picture on two holes to boost the scorecard.

Conditions were difficult — the greens, recently cored, were bumpy and unpredictable while recent rains had left the fairways heavy and there was no run.

The scoring was sound enough in the circumstances with Ray Lenehan turning in a fine singles tally of 40 points to take out the event, though he took only second place to sweep stakes winner Bob Parnell (43 points).

John McDonald, back on the Tattersall's scene after two years in Bangkok, showed his old finesse with 39 points.

The roll-up was a shade disappointing but the numbers should be there at the next outing on June 11 at popular Pennant Hills.

Results: Four Ball — Winners Vic Zappia and R. Parnell 45 points; Runners-up Ernie Bacon and T. Dickman 43 points. Singles — Members — Winner Ray Lenehan 40 points; Runner-up John McDonald 39 points. Singles — Visitors — Winner Jim Stevenson 35 points; Runner-up John Baylis 33 points on count back from Bob Weir. Eddie Tindell 1 ball.

Our sincere condolences in a fervent tribute on behalf of all John's Tattersall's colleagues.

SWIMMING NOTES

POOL RECORD AGAIN BROKEN BY DENIS WILSON, A FIRST CLASS PERFORMANCE BY JOHN LANGSWORTH TO WIN THE MONTHLY POINT SCORE. MOUNTING EXCITEMENT OVER CLOSENESS OF THE "NATIVE SON" TROPHY.

Records are only made to be broken and it was expected that our latest speedster find in Denis Wilson would topple his own record, which he did during the month with all three time-keepers agreeing on 17.1 seconds. Denis is in superlative form and will be a distinct threat in the Championship.

A new innovation this season will be an A Grade Championship restricted to swimmers handicapped on 22 or over for a trophy donated by Committee member Les Tidmarsh.

Enthusiasm for the sport was never higher as evidenced by 72 members competing during the month with 16 of them breaking their handicaps.

From the pool comes news of the exciting tussle between Vic Zappia, Russell Debney, Ken Finn, Garry Furlong, Bill Butchart, Jim Comans, John Reid, Gordon Salier, Norm Rogers and John McLean for the final four places in Bill Kirwan's "Native Son" Trophy. With only seven races remaining to be decided only 20 points separate the leading eleven contestants, with the result in the lap of the gods.

John Langsworth landed the monthly after a determined challenge from most improved swimmer David Barnett by one point with Gordon Salier a further one and half points away in third place.

Peter Wakefield would have been well in the running for the monthly score, but was unlucky enough to catch the wary eye of our check starter and earn disqualification.

Amongst the best 40 yard dashes during the month were: D. Wilson 17.1, R. Debney 19.1, D. Barnett 19.9 and 20.9, P. King 20.2 and N. Rogers 21.1 secs.

The unfortunates to lose seconds were N. Amy (2), J. Langsworth (2), D. Barnett (2), S. Dickson, S. Kay, G. Salier, M. Frawley, J. Keating, T. Salier, J. Fay, P. Geddes, R. Tobias, J. McClean, D. Wilson, P. King and Bron McKillop (1).

A welcome was extended to new swimmer Peter Joseph. Peter will soon be greeting the judges.

Two notable absentees from the pool over the last few months were Johnny Dexter enjoying the New Zealand climate and Stuart Murray who decided to call it a day and go caravanning. We all hope to see them back with us again shortly.

Congratulations to popular Ron Codner on "Battle Scarred's" several victories. Ron is an ardent supporter of our Swimming Club.

Happy days are here again seeing big hearted Morry Anderson back amongst the boys. Here's hoping that when "Highly Rated" registers a victory, maybe we could see the miracle of Morry throwing his sticks in the air and walking without their aid.
